ARTICLE 1 PREAMBLE

Frederick Community College exists to provide all Frederick County residents and others who choose to enroll at the College, with the education, workforce preparation, skills, abilities, and personal growth necessary to succeed in an increasingly interconnected world, at a cost that demonstrates the prudent use of the College's available resources.

To that end, United Academics of Maryland-FCC and the Board of Trustees of Frederick Community College are committed to the principles of equal opportunity by recruiting and investing in a diverse community with an equitable and welcoming environment for all. This includes people of various cultures, ages, races, ethnicities, sexual orientations, gender identities, socioeconomic statuses, religions, physical or mental abilities, and political affiliations.

ARTICLE 2 GENERAL PROVISIONS

The Board recognizes United Academics of Maryland–AFT-AAUP, Frederick Community College (UAMD-FCC), as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining representative for all full-time faculty of Frederick Community College, as defined herein.

§2.2 DEFINITION OF BARGAINING UNIT. The bargaining unit shall be defined as follows: all eligible Full-Time Faculty, including but not limited to professors and other full-time employees whose assignments involve primarily academic responsibilities, as described in the federal Fair Labor Standards Act and the Maryland State Education Article, employed by Frederick Community College.

The President of the College shall determine whether faculty personnel otherwise eligible for inclusion in the bargaining unit are properly excluded based on the criteria listed above. Written notification of any such exclusion shall be provided to the Chapter within ten (10) business days of any such determination. If the Chapter disagrees with the President's determination, the Chapter may request a meeting with the President/designee within 10 business days of the written notification. Should the Chapter and the College be unable to agree, either party may follow the procedures for addressing unit clarification matters under State law.

§2.3 INTEGRITY OF THE UNIT. If a bargaining unit member's position is modified by the College to the extent the position is no longer under the jurisdiction of this Agreement the College will notify the Chapter within five (5) working days of the decision. The parties acknowledge that disputes regarding unit designations are matters resolved through the Public Employee Relations Board; should that venue change for any reason, the parties acknowledge that disputes are subject to the processes outlined in the Grievance Article.

§2.4 DEFINITION OF TERMS.

§2.4.1 Whenever used in this Agreement, the terms "College" or "Management" shall mean the Board of Trustees and/or the administrative staff designated by the Board to implement and administer the Board's policies.

§2.4.2 Whenever used in this Agreement, the terms "Union" or "Chapter" shall mean the exclusive representative for full-time faculty, United Academics of Maryland–FCC.

§2.4.3 Whenever used in this Agreement, the term "full-time faculty member" shall mean all eligible faculty personnel teaching a minimum of 11.5 credits per semester (Fall and Spring).

§2.4.4 Whenever used in this Agreement, the term "credits" shall include teaching and release time.

§2.5 RENEGOTIATIONS. The items of this Agreement not requiring fiscal support, when duly ratified by the Association and the Board, shall be valid and binding. The items which require fiscal support shall be valid and binding to the extent that sufficient funds are guaranteed and/or made available by the Frederick County or State of Maryland fiscal authorities to fully implement said items. If categories which contain requests for funds to support items in this Agreement are reduced by the County Council, further negotiations on these items shall begin after the action by the County Council. If any provision of this Agreement or any application of the Agreement to any party to this agreement shall be found contrary to law, then such provisions or application shall not be deemed valid and subsisting except to the extent permitted by law; but all other provisions or applications shall continue in full force and effect.

§2.6 DATES FOR NEGOTIATIONS. The parties will make every reasonable effort to begin negotiations for a succeeding year no later than October 1 and conclude in a timely manner before the budget submission dates required by the College's fiscal authorities, unless either party intends to continue negotiations.

§2.7 MODIFICATION OF AGREEMENT. This agreement may not be modified in whole or part except by an instrument in writing duly executed by both parties.

§2.8 WORK OF THE UNIT The work that belongs to the bargaining faculty includes,, but is not limited to, teaching, mentoring, advising and other instructional duties and assistance to students; professional service, including developing and maintaining the integrity of the curriculum and degree requirements, assessment and accreditation and other duties related to departmental and college organization and operation; discipline-appropriate scholarly and creative activity; other professional engagement in the broader life of the College community to maintain and continually work to improve the academic standards of the College and foster the conditions that enable the best possible College experience for students.

§2.8.1 Instructional Leader Positions. Instructional Leader positions, including but not limited to the Faculty Lead, shall be reserved for members of the full-time faculty unit.

§2.8.2 Establishing reassigned/credit release time for full-time faculty members.

§2.8.2.1 Factors determining reassigned/credit release time for instructional leadership positions may include the number of adjunct faculty teaching in the program, student enrollment, students in the plan, number of sections and different number of courses.

§2.8.2.2 Factors determining reassigned/credit release time for other projects (e.g., curriculum development, internship development, supervision of student productions, etc.)

may include the number of students/sections impacted, nature of deliverables and complexity of development.

§2.8.2.3 Reassigned/credit release time will be reviewed annually by the Associate Provost/designee and one UAMD-FCC representative from each School within the College.

§2.8.3 Bargaining unit members that meet the minimum qualifications for open positions and who complete the required application process will be afforded an opportunity to interview for the positions.

§2.8.4 Bargaining unit faculty whose regular (i.e., not overload) classes are cancelled due to low enrollment, will be reassigned to a class which they are qualified to teach. So long as classes have not started, this reassignment will be prioritized over non-bargaining unit faculty. If an appropriate class is not available, they will be offered credit release time and/or reassigned to work on a special project (e.g., curriculum, etc.) or may use “banked” credits to make their course load for that semester.

§2.8.5 When used in this Agreement, the term “Full-time faculty” shall mean all faculty personnel assigned more than 11.5 credits of instruction or release time per semester.

§2.8.7 Exceptions to the terms set forth in this section may occur only in cases when both parties agree that it is an emergency situation or both parties agree that there are no bargaining unit members readily available to do the work, and provided that the act of performing the work, or assigning it to be performed, does not itself reduce the availability of work hours, or affect the salary, of any member of the bargaining unit.

§4.3 USE OF COLLEGE FACILITIES. The Chapter shall have the right to schedule facilities on campus and access to services, catering and equipment associated with the use of facilities as a recognized faculty group. The Chapter will pay all customary fees and charges for its use of catering services. Use of the meeting rooms, services, catering and equipment is subject to availability. Academic uses have priority until the space is reserved by the Chapter. Facilities, services, and equipment will be reserved in the name of United Academics and not in the name of bargaining unit faculty members. The Chapter will comply with all college policies regarding the use of college meeting rooms, facilities, services, and catering.

§4.4 NEW HIRE ORIENTATION. At each new hire orientation session for new full-time faculty, the Chapter's designated representatives shall be given a place at the beginning of the session for thirty (30) minutes. Attendance at this portion of the session is not mandatory and is at the discretion of the employee.

The Chapter shall be allowed to provide informational literature concerning union membership to the new hire at the orientation session.

§4.5 NOTIFICATION OF NEW HIRE. The College shall notify the Chapter in writing of every new full-time faculty hire within seven (7) days of the new employee's date of hire.

In any year in which there are negotiations of this agreement, the College shall grant to a faculty member, or to faculty members, designated by the Chapter work hours, not to exceed one-hundred fifty (150) clock hours non-instructional time per academic year in the aggregate, for the purpose of attending to Chapter matters related to collective bargaining.

§4.9 CHAPTER MEETINGS. Upon reasonable notice to the College, the Chapter may schedule meetings in the buildings of the College, provided no meetings involving faculty have been scheduled by the College for the same time.

§4.9.1 After a Union meeting has been scheduled, new meetings involving faculty members will not be scheduled or held at the same time except in emergency situations. The Chapter will be notified as soon as practicable if an emergency meeting is scheduled.

§4.10 STEWARDS' COUNCIL MEETINGS. Recognizing the need for a common time of availability for Chapter Stewards to meet, Stewards may use block time once a month for their group meetings.

Academic responsibilities will take priority over Stewards' meetings during block time.

Appointments shall be for one (1) academic year, but members may be reappointed for subsequent one-year (1) terms by their respective party. The LMC will be co-chaired by the Chapter President/designee and one of the members appointed by the College.

The parties also agree that additional resource members may be invited by mutual agreement or selected to serve on sub-committees established to address specific matters.

§4.13.1 The Labor/Management Committee is not a substitute for the grievance procedure. And neither party will submit or otherwise seek modification of any negotiated term or condition of this Agreement through the Labor/Management Committee and no bargaining will take place.

Campus attendance may be required outside the academic terms to meet the needs of the College as included in this Article.

§5.1.3.2 If the faculty member objects to the decision made by the supervisor, upon request, the Provost/designee will meet with them. The Provost/designee will then make a decision to maintain or change the assignment, at which time the faculty member will be notified in writing, and upon request, of the basis for the decision. This process will not waive the faculty member's rights under any other provision of this Agreement.

§5.1.4 Instructional Load

§5.1.4.1 Full-time 10-month faculty shall teach a normal course load of fifteen (15) credits per semester.

§5.1.4.1.1 Overload. If agreed to, a full-time faculty member may be approved by the Provost/designee for an overload beyond their maximum assigned credits. Overload should not exceed six (6) credits per semester.

members. Overload classes will be paid at the contractual overload rate established in Article 11 Compensation.

§5.1.4.1.2 Spring (January) Academic Sessions. If agreed to, a full-time 10-month faculty member may be approved to teach courses during Spring (January) Academic Session. However, the assignment should not exceed one (1) course (or up to 6 credit hours, whichever is greater) If a 10-month full-time faculty member teaches during the Spring (January) Academic Session, their Spring semester teaching load may be adjusted accordingly.

§5.1.4.1.3 Summer Session. If agreed to, a full-time 10-month faculty member may be approved to teach courses during Summer Sessions. However, the assignment should not exceed two (2) courses (or 12 credits, whichever is greater).

§5.1.5.2 Overload Credit Banking

§5.1.5.2.1 Prior to the implementation of this section (§5.1.5.2) the parties will ensure that both of the following requirements have been met:

- A. The College shall maintain an electronic system for accurate tracking of banked time.
- B. The provisions of this section (§5.1.5.2) conform with applicable IRS regulations such that time associated with banked credits will not be considered “deferred compensation”.

§5.1.5.2.2 Overload credit banking is a means by which full-time faculty members may earn load credit for teaching assignments that are beyond their contracted 15 credits/semester as defined in §5.1.3.1 above.

§5.1.5.2.3 Members who are approved for overload credit assignments, may elect to bank up to 6 overload credits per semester.

§5.1.5.2.4 Members who choose to bank overload credits must make their intention to bank the credits known in writing at the time the overload is approved, unless an exception is approved by administration.

§5.1.5.2.6 A member cannot be approved to use more than 6 banked credits per semester.

§5.1.5.2.7 With the approval of the Provost/designee, banked credits can be used during a faculty member’s regular contract year. Banked credits will be used for the full length of the semester.

§5.1.5.2.7.1 The deadline by which to receive best consideration for the usage of banked credits shall be the opening of registration for the semester in which they are to be used. The College may also limit the number of approved requests to use banked credits due to College or program operational constraints. If the number of requests exceeds the number to be approved, requests shall be granted as follows:

- A. In reverse order of faculty members' most recent usage of banked credits, then
- B. By seniority by date of hire as full-time faculty.
- C. If a faculty member waives their priority in deference to another member's request, the waiving member shall not relinquish their priority in consideration for later requests.

§5.1.5.2.7.2 If a faculty member is denied the application of banked credits in a semester due to operational constraints, they may choose to maintain those banked credits or have them paid out at the current overload rate.

§5.1.5.2.8 Overload assignments will not be allowed in a semester when the member is applying banked credits to their load requirement, unless approved by administration.

§5.1.5.2.9 Banked credits must be used within three (3) years after they are earned.

§5.1.5.2.10 Any unused banked credits will be paid out at the current overload rate at the time of retirement or separation from employment, or if any portion of accumulated credits remain after three (3) years.

§5.1.5.2.11 When a member uses banked credits to reduce their required load, remaining job responsibilities (as noted in §5.1 above) will be proportional to the remaining credit load for that semester.

§5.1.5.3 Full-time 12-month faculty may teach a maximum of forty-five (45) credits per year.

§5.1.6 Learning Management System (LMS)/Navigate. The learning management system shall be used for classes in all formats to ensure a consistent student learning experience.

All student hours must be posted on the syllabus and must be offered in an appropriate mix of formats and times to accommodate students' varying needs.

§5.1.7.1 All full-time faculty should be available to their students through email and/or by appointment on contracted workdays and should respond to student email inquiries within 1 to 2 business days.

§5.1.8 Service and Scholarship to College. All full-time faculty shall provide service and scholarship to the College at a level commensurate with their academic rank, described in Section §5.3.

§5.1.9 Establishing Reassigned or Release Time for Lead Faculty. Factors determining reassigned/release time for lead faculty may include the number of adjunct faculty teaching in the program, student enrollment, students in plan, number of sections and different number of courses.

Lead faculty reassigned/release time will be reviewed annually by the Associate Provost/designee and one representative from UAMD-FCC.

§5.2 PROBATIONARY FULL-TIME FACULTY. Full-time faculty serve on a probationary contract for the first three years. An additional year of probation may be required. Probationary full-time faculty can be discharged with or without cause.

§5.3 PROMOTION. Based on the recommendations of the committee established by the revised Memorandum of Understanding, dated May 6, 2025, the parties agree to reopen negotiations for the purposes of negotiating mandatory subjects of bargaining related to full-time faculty rank and promotions. Thereafter, the Promotions Committee established by that MOU will be reconvened on a 3-year rotation, staggered with those committees also established by MOU herein, on the same terms.

§5.4.2.1 The Chapter shall be provided with access and the opportunity to inspect, request, and/or copy any additional information relevant to the anticipated reduction in force after the electronic or hard-copy delivery of a written notice from the College.

§5.4.3 Voluntary Action. A full-time faculty member may volunteer to retire or otherwise sever employment to prevent or reduce the need for a reduction in force.

§5.4.3.1 Incentives for those who are involuntarily reduced or who accept voluntary action as set forth in this Article may include part-time teaching arrangements and/or other terms as negotiated between the College and the Chapter.

§5.4.4 Placement of Full-Time Faculty. Before releasing full-time faculty, the College shall place them in open positions they are qualified for.

§5.4.4.1 No full-time faculty member will be dismissed without the College making documented good-faith efforts to relocate the full-time faculty member within the College. Such documentation shall be provided to the Chapter.

§5.4.4.2 Qualifications for positions shall be no more than what would normally be required of new hires.

§5.4.5 Order of Reductions. If, after attrition, placement, and voluntary action as set forth in the Sections above have been exhausted, and further reductions are necessary, they shall proceed in the following order:

§5.4.5.1 If no positions are available for transfer placement, all part-time faculty not funded by outside sources shall be released before any full-time faculty of any category, unless no full-time faculty member has the qualifications necessary to teach the part-time faculty member's course(s).

§5.4.5.2 Bargaining-unit members in the department(s) affected will be released in the following order:

1. Probationary
2. Non-Probationary without continuous contract
3. Non-Probationary with continuous contract

§5.4.5.3 Full-time faculty members, shall be released in the inverse order of their seniority. Seniority shall be defined as the years, months, and days since being hired into a full-time faculty position.

§5.4.6 Notice of Release. The College will provide notice of release to affected members of the bargaining unit no later than March 31 of the prior fiscal year.

§5.4.7 Recall. Bargaining-unit members, who were subject to a reduction in force or members who were placed in non-faculty positions at the College under the terms set forth in this Article, shall be placed on a priority recall list in accordance with their seniority. Such bargaining-unit faculty members shall be offered reinstatement to the same or a comparable position if such a position is reauthorized. All bargaining-unit members subject to a reduction in force members who were placed in non-faculty positions at the College shall remain on the priority recall list for a maximum of three (3) years following their release or their placement in a non-faculty position at the College.

§5.4.7.1 Members shall be recalled as vacancies become available in accordance with their position on the list and their qualification for said vacancies. When vacancies become available, the College shall notify bargaining-unit members of the vacancy by phone, personal email, and certified postal mail.

§5.4.7.2 Full-time faculty who have been offered reinstatement shall indicate in writing within twenty business days (20) days of notification their acceptance or rejection of the position.

§5.4.7.2.1 If a reduced full-time faculty member accepts reinstatement, they shall be able to complete the term of their current employment, if applicable, up to one (1) semester, before beginning the recalled position at the College.

§5.4.7.2.2 The bargaining-unit member may decline the offer of reassignment to another position within FCC and retain their position on the priority recall list. All bargaining-unit members shall remain on the priority recall list for a maximum of three (3) years.

5.4.7.3 The College's offer to reinstate, if accepted, shall be at the same contract level, appointment type, academic rank, and salary, adjusted to incorporate any general, non-performance-based salary increases that were granted since the time the bargaining-unit faculty member was released.

§5.4.7.4 A full-time faculty member who accepts reappointment shall have their reduction period counted towards their eligibility for a years of service award.

§5.5 JUST CAUSE AND DUE PROCESS. The College strives to create a safe work environment with clear expectations that uphold accountability for individual conduct and address behaviors that disrupt that environment. The employee will be given the opportunity to correct misconduct or inappropriate behavior by working with their direct supervisor through informal resolution, unless the conduct is so severe that immediate action is required.

The College will abide by the following standards of just cause:

1. Fair notice
2. Reasonable rule
3. Investigation
4. Fairness
5. Proof
6. Consistency
7. Appropriate discipline

If determined necessary, disciplinary action will be taken in a timely manner and in accordance with due process rights, established in this Agreement and under local, state, and federal law. Unless the conduct is so severe that immediate action is required, disciplinary action will be progressive, depending on the severity of the misconduct and may take the form of a verbal warning, written reprimand, disciplinary suspension without pay, or discharge from employment.

The College may investigate misconduct and take disciplinary action if it arises from the violation of local, state, or federal law, though the accused faculty member will still be entitled to due process under this Agreement.

§5.5.1 Notice. When meeting with a full-time faculty member for the purpose of investigation or discipline the full-time faculty member shall be advised of their right to representation and the specific reason for the meeting prior to the meeting and they will be given reasonable time to arrange for representation. At all stages and levels of the disciplinary process, the faculty member shall have the right to have both UAMD representation and legal counsel present at their own expense. A party who plans to bring legal counsel to a meeting shall notify the other party. The right to representation is exclusive to UAMD representatives and/or legal counsel.

The right to UAMD representation extends to full-time faculty members that are witnesses in the investigation.

§5.5.1.1 Investigations, pre-disciplinary and disciplinary conversations and meetings will be conducted in private to preserve and respect the confidentiality and dignity of full-time faculty members except in an emergency when immediate action is required.

§5.5.1.2 The full-time faculty member will be advised with written or electronic notification that disciplinary action is being considered. Notification should include the date and time of the meeting, the right to be represented by UAMD-FCC at the meeting, and the general nature of the allegation that will be discussed at the meeting.

§5.5.1.3 Copies of evidence will be provided upon request by the Chapter and/or full-time faculty member. Evidence will be released in compliance with privacy laws. The request to preview or for copies of the evidence will not result in a delay of a disciplinary or due process meeting if the evidence is reasonably able to be reviewed at the meeting, the full-time faculty member will be given the opportunity to respond to the evidence and offer their own to be considered in good faith. Once presented with the evidence, the faculty member will have reasonable opportunity to consult privately with their representative(s), even if doing so requires the meeting be postponed and rescheduled for a later date.

§5.5.1.3.1 Anonymous evidence that is not corroborated by an identified source will not be used as the basis for discipline.

§5.5.1.4 The College is not obligated to unreasonably postpone the meeting with the employee nor to suggest or secure alternate representation if the individual Chapter representative requested is unavailable.

§5.5.2 Progressive Discipline. Disciplinary action for just cause may include verbal warning, written reprimand, suspension without pay, and discharge. Progressive discipline refers to the process of using escalating measures when appropriate when an employee fails to correct a problem after being given a reasonable opportunity to do so. While severe misconduct may require higher level disciplinary actions to be taken outside the order above, a faculty member's right to due process shall not be infringed in any case.

§5.5.2.1 Verbal Warning. A verbal warning may be issued following a meeting between the dean/supervisor and the full-time faculty member and its issuance noted for future reference by the dean/supervisor. Verbal warnings shall be documented, citing the date, time and subject. The full-time faculty member will be asked to sign the document, indicating that the verbal warning has been received. If the full-time faculty member declines to sign the document, the supervisor will make a notation of such on the document along with date and time. The full-time faculty member may write a rebuttal which will be attached to the document. A copy of the document(s) will be provided to the full-time faculty member, and a copy will be retained in the supervisor's file and may be referred to if discipline progresses.

§5.5.2.2 Written Reprimand. A written reprimand specifying the misconduct, the expected behavior changes, and the consequences for continued noncompliance will be issued to the full-time faculty member. The full-time faculty member will be asked to sign the document, indicating that the written reprimand has been received. The full-time faculty member may also write a rebuttal which will be attached to the document. A copy of the document(s) will be provided to the full-time faculty member and filed in the full-time faculty member's personnel file in the Office of Human Resources.

§5.5.2.3 Suspension. Disciplinary suspension without pay. Upon approval of the Provost/designee, a letter notifying the full-time faculty member of the suspension will be issued by the Office of Human Resources. The full-time faculty member may also write a rebuttal which will be attached to the document. A copy of the document(s) will be provided to the full-time faculty member and filed in the full-time faculty member's personnel file in the Office of Human Resources.

Prior to the Provost/designee's final determination on unpaid suspension, the faculty member may request a peer review in accordance with Section §5.5.3.

Upon agreement of the parties, an unpaid suspension may be served on non-consecutive days.

If the Provost/designee does not approve the suspension, lower-level (e.g., letter of reprimand or fewer days) disciplinary action may be taken.

§5.5.2.4 Discharge. A full-time faculty member may be discharged upon the recommendation of the investigating administrator /supervisor. The discharge recommendation will be made to the Provost/designee, accompanied by supporting documentation, with copies provided to the full-time faculty member. Prior to rendering a final decision by the Provost/designee, a "Loudermill" hearing will be made available to the faculty member.

Prior to the Provost/designee's final determination on discharge, the faculty member may request a peer review in accordance with Section §5.5.3.

If the Provost/designee does not approve the discharge, alternative lower-level (e.g., letter of reprimand or fewer days) disciplinary action may be taken.

§5.5.3 Peer Review Panel. If suspension without pay or discharge has been recommended, the faculty member may request a peer review of the matter prior to the Provost/designee's final determination.

§5.5.3.1 The Peer Review Panel shall be appointed by the College, with two (2) faculty members selected from a list provided by UAMD-FCC and one (1) faculty member selected by the President/designee. Membership of the Panel shall remain confidential.

§5.5.3.2 Peer review proceedings shall not be open to the public and will be confidential. The conduct of the proceedings shall be informal and shall not be recorded.

§5.5.3.3 The peer review panel shall conduct a "paper review" and have access to all documents associated with the investigation and prior proceedings leading up to the recommendation for suspension without pay or discharge. The name of the faculty member and witnesses and any other appropriate identifying information shall be redacted.

§5.5.3.3.1 The panel shall make its recommendation based on evidence gathered in the investigation and prior proceedings. If the Panel cannot reach consensus on a recommendation, its decision shall be by majority vote. Unless mutually agreed to by the parties, the panel's recommendation shall be presented, in writing, to the Provost/designee, the faculty member, and the Chapter no later than ten (10) business days after the close of the proceedings.

§5.5.4 Grievance. The Grievance Procedure contained in Article 6 is the exclusive remedy for contesting discipline and discharge for full-time faculty members under this Agreement. However, this does not mean the employee is waiving their right to explore potential legal remedies available to them under local, state and federal laws.

§5.5.5 Life of Discipline Records. Disciplinary records beyond verbal warning (in accordance with §5.5.2.1 of this Agreement) will be maintained in the full-time faculty member's personnel file.

§5.6 PERFORMANCE EVALUATION. Based on the recommendations of the committee established by the October 25, 2024, Memorandum of Understanding, the parties agree to reopen negotiations for the purposes of negotiating mandatory subjects of bargaining related to full-time faculty performance evaluations. Thereafter, the Performance Evaluation Committee established by that MOU will be reconvened on a 3-year rotation, staggered with those committees also established by MOU herein, on the same terms.

§5.7 PERSONNEL FILES. Official personnel files are maintained in the Office of Human Resources. A full-time faculty member has a right to review their personnel file in the Office of Human Resources. A written request should be submitted to HR by any employee who wishes to review their file. Full-time faculty members may print items from their file.

§5.7.1 If a full-time faculty member believes that there is factual error or unsubstantiated information in their personnel file, they may file a complaint with the Office of Human Resources.

§5.7.2 Full-time faculty members' personnel files may only be accessed by individuals other than the faculty with the consent of Human Resources. Information included in personnel files may only be used for disciplinary purposes with just cause, as enumerated in § 5.5 Just Cause and Due Process.

§5.8 ACADEMIC FREEDOM. The parties support the concept of academic freedom. Academic freedom establishes the right and implies the obligation of a faculty member to examine data and to question assumptions. Academic freedom concerns methods and product of inquiry and the professional rather than the personal views of the faculty. Faculty members will not be censored, exploited, discriminated against, or harassed in the exercise of their academic freedom.

Faculty are entitled to freedom in the classroom when discussing their subject and should ensure that the inclusion of controversial matters in their teaching is related to the subject matter and presented in a scholarly and unbiased way.

College faculty are members of a learned profession and of our community. When they speak or write as community members, on matters of genuine public concern, they will be free from institutional censorship or discipline, but their special position in the community imposes special responsibilities. As scholars, they should remember that the public may judge their profession and their institution by their speech. Hence, in their public speech and writing, they must endeavor to be accurate, exercise appropriate conduct, acknowledge the opinions of others, and indicate that they are not speaking for the institution.

Subject to the approval of the Frederick Community College Institutional Research Board (IRB) and to the adequate performance of their other academic duties, faculty are entitled to full freedom in research and the publication of the results.

At all times, faculty are required to adhere to college policies (in so far as they do not conflict with this Agreement or its scope), other sections of this Agreement, and relevant laws. However, faculty maintain the right to question and to seek change through all available channels.

§5.9 HEALTH AND SAFETY

§5.9.1 Absences by a full-time faculty member due to inclement weather. If the College is not closed and a full-time faculty member determines that it is unsafe to travel to class because of inclement weather, they may choose to cancel or reschedule the class. In such cases, the full-time faculty member is responsible for communicating directly to the students via the LMS or other designated channel. Text and/or email may be used as a secondary notification. Full-time faculty must notify their supervisor and respective Associate Vice President/Dean.

§5.10 NON-DISCRIMINATION. Frederick Community College is committed to the principles of equal opportunity and strictly prohibits discrimination against any person on the basis of age, ancestry, citizenship status, color, creed, ethnicity, gender identity and expression, genetic information, marital status, mental or physical disability, national origin, native language, race, religious affiliation, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy (including childbirth, lactation and related medical conditions) veteran status or Chapter membership in its activities, admissions, educational programs, and employment.

§5.10.1 The College and the Chapter agree that there shall be no discrimination, by the College against any faculty member or members, or against any applicant for continuous contract, promotion, or any other personnel matter because of Chapter membership, participation in any lawful activity on behalf of the Chapter, or for exercising any rights in this Agreement.

§5.10.2 There shall be no retaliation against members who, in good faith, bring complaints regarding allegations of discrimination on the protected categories as identified above.

§5.10.3 Discrimination Complaints. Faculty who believes they have been subject to discrimination have the right to file a complaint in accordance with the policies and procedures of the College's Human Resources Department or filing a formal grievance under Article 6 of this Agreement.

§5.10.3.1 If a faculty member files a complaint with any external public agency or with a State or Federal Court, the grievance shall automatically terminate.

§5.11 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY. The intent of this Article is to establish the procedures for determining the ownership of Intellectual Property produced at or for the College by members of the faculty bargaining unit. The College and the Chapter recognize and encourage the intellectual scholarship and academic creativity of faculty as an inherent part of the education mission of the College while adhering to the general principles of applicable copyright law.

§5.11.1 Definitions.

§5.11.1.1 The term “Intellectual Property” refers to the product of creative or scholarly efforts, whether or not protected by patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret laws, contract, or agreement. Expressions of original ideas, objects, data, applications, and processes are considered to be intellectual property. Expressions could include written material, spoken descriptions, models, sketches, musical scores (including any accompanying words), sculptures, software code and programs (and related manuals and/or documentation), websites or web pages, audiovisual works, architectural works, dramatic works (including any accompanying music), pantomimes and choreographic works, and paintings. Such property includes, but is not limited to, inventions, goods, materials, course material, lab manuals, instruments, equipment, biological organisms, chemical compositions, mask works, computer software, graphics, literary and musical works, and trademarks. The intellectual property may be in tangible or intangible form. Intellectual property in tangible form may be physically distributed. Intellectual property may be protected by one or more of the following: patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark, contract, or agreement

§5.11.1.2 Instructional works. Intellectual Property as defined in relation to instructional works but is not limited to syllabi, handouts, lecture notes, slides, videos, audio recordings, assignments and exercises, quizzes and exams, workbooks, study guides, projects, laboratory manuals, multimedia, programs, complete online courses (including those created with a learning management system), and all other materials related to in-person or online courses or web-related materials, along with any and all other course and instructional materials created by faculty. Instructional works are generally considered works made for hire intended for the College’s legitimate instructional/educational purposes, created within faculty’s scope of employment.

§5.11.1.3 Scholarly and creative works. Includes but is not limited to literary works, books, articles, fictional or non-fictional narratives, reviews, dramatic and musical compositions, poetry, analysis (e.g., scientific, logical, opinion, or criticism), works of art and design, including pictorial, graphic and sculptural works, photographs, films, video and audio recordings, computer based programs and media (e.g., software or computed code of their representation in forms such as CD-ROM, video disk, compressed video, digital, web-based material and the like), original “mask works” (i.e., original images derived from semi-conductor chip products), architectural and engineering drawings, choreography, and any and all other original faculty work that is not considered work made for hire.

§5.11.1.4 Name, image, likeness, and identity. Faculty may opt out of having their photo, recording, or name used, published, or disseminated by the College by executing a written optout delivered to appropriate parties.

§5.11.1.5 Creator. A Creator is any bargaining-unit member, or a group of bargaining-unit members working collaboratively, who creates an item of Intellectual Property.

§5.11.1.6 Substantial support. Use of College resources, support, and facilities important to the creation of Intellectual Property is considered “substantial” when use of College services exceed the level of support that is commonly and customarily accessed by faculty. Examples of such support items include but are not limited to the following:

§5.11.1.6.1 Alternate assignment, and/or special assignment for a specific project or task (excepting Sabbatical Leave).

§5.11.1.6.2 Use of College funds designated for a specific project or task.

§5.11.1.6.3 Use of College-owned, administered, leased equipment, facilities, materials or technological information.

§5.11.1.6.4 Support provided by other public or private organizations, when it is arranged, administered, or controlled by the College.

§5.11.1.6.5 Assistance of one or more College employees or students, or others who are assigned to a project or task.

§5.11.1.6.6 Cash investments or cash purchases.

§5.11.1.7 Insubstantial or incidental support. Examples of insubstantial use of College resources, support, and facilities include the following:

§5.11.1.7.1 Mere incidental use of College resources, support, and facilities and uses of those in ways that are generally available to the public.

§5.11.1.7.2 Normal academic use of facilities commonly available to bargaining-unit members, staff, or the public, such as libraries, offices, office equipment, or Internet services.

§5.11.1.7.3 Use of approved leave, except in cases where the provisions set forth in §5.11.1.8 are applicable.

§5.11.1.8 Work made for hire. A work made for hire is: 1) a work prepared by an employee within the scope of his or her employment or 2) a work that is specially ordered or commissioned for use by FCC, including contributions to collective works, if the parties agree in writing that the work will be considered a work-made-for-hire. Work created pursuant to a research agreement between FCC and an outside party, either a private sector company or a governmental agency, is considered to be within the scope of employment.

§5.11.2 Ownership and Rights to Intellectual Property. Except as specifically provided by agreement between the parties, the College owns intellectual property: 1) created as work made for hire, 2) with substantial College Support, or 3) institutional works produced as a collaborative effort under the supervision and/or direction of the College, or 4) instructional works.

§5.11.2.1 As an incentive to encourage scholarly, creative, and pedagogical growth, the College shall not claim any ownership or share of the proceeds in Intellectual Property created by faculty members outside the scope of their employment and with only incidental use or without substantial use of College resources, support, or facilities, as defined in §5.11.1.7 of this Article, respectively. All such Intellectual Property is owned by its Creator.

§5.11.2.2 Bargaining-unit members own the rights to control their scholarly, creative, pedagogical, and other original works as set forth §5.11.1.3 of this Article, except in cases where they have executed a written agreement with the College setting forth terms to the contrary as described in §5.11.1.8 or §5.11.2.2.1 of this Article.

§5.11.2.2.1 The College and the Creator may enter into an agreement that identifies ownership rights of the Creator as set forth in §5.11.2 of this Article while allowing the College certain rights to use faculty Intellectual Property. Such an agreement must be for specific materials and voluntarily entered into by the Creator.

§5.11.2.3 The College shall not claim ownership, interest, or share of the proceeds in Intellectual Property created by a bargaining-unit member on Sabbatical Leave except in cases where the provisions set forth in §5.11.2 apply and expressly set forth in the agreement between the College and the Creator. A Creator's agreement to cede ownership of existing or future intellectual property will not serve as a condition for approval of their request for Sabbatical Leave.

§5.11.2.4 Courses and course delivery shall not be recorded by FCC without prior knowledge of the faculty member. Faculty members may refuse consent to be recorded by FCC unless doing so contradicts local, state, or federal law.

§5.11.3 Partnerships with External Agencies. All Intellectual Property developed by bargaining-unit members with support from a sponsor outside the College shall be governed by the provisions regarding ownership in the sponsorship agreement, grant, or contract. In the absence of such terms, the ownership of such Intellectual Property shall be determined by this Article.

§5.11.4 The provisions of this Article are subject to any applicable laws, regulations, or provisions that affect the rights of Intellectual Property holders, made in connection with the activities addressed herein.

§5.12 REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal civil rights law designed to prevent discrimination and enable individuals with disabilities to participate fully in all aspects of society. One fundamental principle of the ADA is that individuals with disabilities who want to work and are qualified to work must have an equal opportunity to work. You have a disability, as defined by the ADA, if you have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity such as hearing, seeing, speaking, thinking, walking, breathing, or performing manual tasks. You also must be able to do the job you want or were hired to do, with or without reasonable accommodation.

The Act further protects individuals from discrimination based on perceived disability and/or a record of disability.

§5.12.1 Accommodation Requests. Faculty have the right to request an accommodation(s) in accordance with local, state and federal laws pursuant to the policies and procedures of the College's Human Resources Department.

§5.12.1.1 The faculty member may request a review by the Vice President Talent & Culture/designee of the proposed reasonable accommodation. The Vice President Talent & Culture/designee's decision is final.

§5.12.2 Disability Discrimination Complaints. Faculty who believes they have been subject to disability discrimination have the right to file a complaint in accordance with the policies and procedures of the College's Human Resources Department or file a formal grievance under Article 6 of this Agreement.

§5.12.2.1 If a faculty member files a complaint with any external public agency or with a State or Federal Court, the grievance shall automatically terminate.

ARTICLE 6 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

§6.1 PURPOSE. The College and the Chapter recognize the importance of establishing a prompt, efficient, orderly, and fair procedure for resolving disputes and complaints. The parties agree to use their best efforts to resolve complaints informally before they become formal grievances. Nothing in this procedure shall be construed as limiting the right of an individual member of the bargaining unit to communicate with any other member of the bargaining unit or any member of the administration for the purposes of informal resolution of a complaint.

§6.2 DEFINITIONS.

§6.2.1 Grievance. "Grievance" means a dispute concerning the application or interpretation of the terms of this Agreement.

§6.2.2 Grievant. A grievant is the Chapter, a full-time faculty member or a group of full-time faculty members who has/have been affected by the grievance.

§6.2.2.1. The term "grievant" shall also mean the Chapter when alleging a grievance on behalf of itself, or on behalf of a bargaining-unit member or a group of members.

§6.3 INDIVIDUAL RIGHT. Any individual full-time faculty member or group of full-time faculty members may at any time present grievances to the College and have these grievances resolved without intervention of the Chapter, provided that the resolution is consistent with the terms of this Agreement. The College shall inform the Chapter, in writing, of such resolutions.

§6.4 CONSTRUCTION. Nothing contained in this article shall prevent the informal resolution of any grievance, and the parties intend that, insofar as is reasonably possible, every grievance will be resolved between the full-time faculty member and the administrative agent of the College immediately involved. Steps One, Two, and Three of the grievance procedure set forth in this Agreement shall be pursued to completion before any application for arbitration may be made, unless the parties hereto enter a written waiver of such step or steps and agree to proceed directly to arbitration.

§6.5 BASIC PROVISIONS. The basic provisions for all steps of all grievances shall be as follows:

§6.5.1 Time Limits. In computing any time limits specified under this article, specific time limits are provided. Time limits may be extended by mutual agreement. Neither party will require that a grievance be advanced or withdrawn without first notifying the other party and asking if the other party intends to request an extension.

§6.5.1.1 Unless extended by mutual consent, in writing, the time limits specified herein shall be the maximum time allowed. In the event of the failure to comply with the time limits on the part of the grievant or the Chapter, the grievance shall be considered as having been withdrawn. In the event of the failure to comply with the time limit on the part of College, the grievance shall automatically advance to the next step of the grievance procedure, except that nothing herein shall be construed to automatically advance a grievance to the Arbitration Step.

§6.5.1.2 During those periods when classes are not in session, proceedings will be held in abeyance unless mutually determined otherwise by the College and the Chapter.

§6.5.2 Grievant rights. A member of the bargaining unit who participates or intends to participate in any grievance as defined herein shall not be subjected to discipline, reprimand, warning, or reprisal because of such participation or intention. All documents, communications, and records dealing with the processing of the grievance shall be filed separately from any personnel file of the participant. The participant shall have the right to examine the file and photocopy its contents.

§6.5.3 Chapter representation. Any member of the bargaining unit presenting a grievance at any step of the procedures described herein may choose to be accompanied by a representative of the Chapter.

§6.5.4 Legal counsel. At all levels of the grievance procedure and at arbitration hearings, the parties shall have the right to have legal counsel present at their own expense. A party who plans to bring legal counsel to a grievance meeting shall notify the other party as soon as practicable prior to the scheduled meeting, except that notice shall not be necessary for arbitration hearings.

§6.5.4.1 Although legal counsel (an individual employed in their capacity as an attorney by either party) may advise their party throughout the process, legal counsel may not serve as a Hearing Officer (see §6.9) or designee.

§6.5.5 The parties acknowledge that grievance records, including grievance files and the content of grievance meetings, may contain information subject to the right to privacy and as such shall be considered confidential personnel information. Grievance records shall be kept in a file separate from the grievant's personnel file and may be used in arbitration. Access to information in grievance records is limited to personnel having legitimate business reasons to access it.

§6.5.6 No reprisals shall be taken against any employee for the filing and processing of any grievances.

§6.6 INFORMAL RESOLUTION OF GRIEVANCES. Nothing contained in this article shall prevent the informal resolution of any grievance, and the parties intend that, insofar as is reasonably possible, every grievance will be resolved between the full-time faculty member and the administrative agent of the College immediately involved. Any informal resolution of a complaint shall be consistent with the provisions of this collective bargaining Agreement.

§6.6.1 Any member or group of members of the bargaining unit may present an informal complaint with the appropriate administrator. Nothing shall be construed as limiting the right of the grievant or of the Chapter to present a formal grievance within the timeline as specified in §7. When advancing a grievance to Step One, the Chapter shall document that an attempt was made to resolve the issue at the lowest appropriate administrative level.

§6.6.2 No resolution of any individually processed grievance shall be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. The College shall not agree to a resolution of the grievance until the Chapter has received a copy of the grievance and the proposed resolution and has been given the opportunity to file a response.

§6.6.3 In the event that a complaint cannot be resolved informally, Steps One and Two and Three of the grievance procedure as set forth in this Article shall be pursued to completion before any application for arbitration may be made, unless the parties hereto enter into a written waiver of such step or steps and agree to proceed directly to arbitration.

§6.7 INITIATION OF GRIEVANCE. The grievant(s) may initiate a grievance by serving a written notice of it to Labor Relations. Such notice shall be clearly identified as a grievance and shall concisely state the facts upon which the grievance is based and when they occurred, to include the following details:

- the provision(s), article(s) and/or section(s) thereof within the Agreement that have allegedly been violated, misinterpreted, or misapplied;
- the circumstances of the grievance including names, dates, places, and times as necessary for complete understanding of the claim;
- the relief and remedy sought;
- date of submission;
- signature of the grievant(s) or the Chapter representative.
