Arts at FCC

Performance Theater • Music • Visual Art

The Arts at Frederick Community College offers rich cultural experiences for the greater Frederick community. The Visual & Performing Arts Center hosts a variety of unique events and workshops in the Jack B. Kussmaul Theater, FCC Studio Theater, and the Mary Condon Hodgson Art Gallery.

The JBK Theater Series is made possible in part through support from the FCC Communications, Humanities, and Arts Department, College Activities, the department of Administration and grants from the Frederick Arts Council, the Maryland State Arts Council, and generous community sponsors.

The Music Program Artist Series is made possible in part from the generous support of community sponsors and the George L. Shields Music Development Fund at Frederick Community College Foundation, Inc. For more information, go to frederick.edu/foundation.

END DAYS

by Deborah Zoe Laufer

Sixteen-year-old Rachel Stein is having a bad year. Her father hasn't changed out of his pajamas since 9/11. Her mother has begun a close, personal relationship with Jesus. Her new neighbor, a sixteen-year-old Elvis impersonator, has fallen for her hard. And the Apocalypse is coming Wednesday. Her only hope is that Stephen Hawking will save them all.

Studio Theater/F-142 • General Seating: $12.00 Adult | $8.00 Students & Seniors
Tickets may be purchased at the Studio Theatre entrance the evening of the performance.

TUESDAY LUNCHTIME RECITAL SERIES

Join selected students, faculty and guest speakers as they perform in a collaborative monthly format. All Lunchtime Recital Series events are free to attend and performed in the Studio Theater in the Visual & Performing Arts Center, F-142.

Tuesday, February 18 • 12:30 p.m.

WOMEN IN SONG

FCC voice faculty member Mary Gresock will explore the incredible stories of 6 female composers and their passionate quests to “find their voice” through song. Musical selections will include the exquisite German lieder of Fanny Mendelssohn and Clara Schumann and the poignant musical theater works of living composer Jeanine Tesori. The comical songs of Lori Laitman and Carrie Jacobs-Bond will tickle your musical funny bone, and all will delight in Rebecca Clarke’s dramatic song –story of The Seal Man. Come join us for this musical potpourri of songs composed by women of both the past and present.

Mary Gresock

Tuesday, March 17 • 12:30 p.m.

COMPOSING FOR CHANGE

New music faculty member Jacob Dalager will be sharing his thoughts on the importance of activism through music with a presentation of his new climate change concerto, 3utures for Trumpet and Orchestra. Jacob has studied trumpet performance and composition at St. Olaf College, Eastman School of Music, and Catholic University. He is currently a freelance trumpet player and composer, an instructor at Frostburg State University, Catholic University, and he teaches trumpet and American Popular Music here at FCC. Join us as we talk about life as a composer-performer and the things that keep you relevant and engaged with your audience!

Jacob Dalager

Tuesday, April 21 • 12:30 p.m.

THREE PROFESSORS OF JAZZ

FCC Jazz Faculty will join forces to celebrate a month-long tribute to Jazz in our community. Howard Burns, Anita Thomas will introduce our new faculty jazz pianist Jordan Clawson in this informal question and answer open forum. Join us as we listen to their musical rapport and enjoyment of each other's various talents. We are proud to feature our Three Professors of Jazz and you can also hear them play at the Flying Camel Literary Café and Piano Bar in Hagerstown, and hosting the jazz jam sessions at the Main Cup in Middletown. Look for their soon to be released CD featuring standards with a fresh approach as well as original tunes by Jordan and Anita.
