

Tuscarora Review - 2019 - Submission Guidelines & Form

- Current or former FCC students, staff, faculty, trustees, or foundation members may submit; however, only students are eligible for awards (excluding current Tuscarora Review board members).
- Authors and artists may submit up to five (5) entries; written submissions will not be returned.
- Written submissions must be original, not previously published, & less than 2,000 words. Text should be typed and double spaced. Possible categories include, but are not limited to, poetry, fiction, essay, fable, interview, and one act play.

Editors will change text to conform to conventions of standard English.

- Art submissions should be titled; these may include, but are not limited to, 2D Art, 3D Art, cartoons, photography, & CD cover designs. Note: Art and photography in the fall & spring student art show will be photographed & automatically considered for publication and awards.
- All entries published & selected for awards are chosen for creative, artistic, & compositional merit. Knowledge of author or artist names is withheld from the editorial board until publication & award decisions are made.

- Submissions are accepted year-round; the deadline is Friday, February 1, 2019. Mail submissions to the English Department, Frederick Community College, 7932 Opossumtown Pike, Frederick, MD 21702. Entries may also be submitted in person to H243 in the Student Center Bldg. Please do not staple submission forms to entries. Or you may submit entries electronically to Tuscarora_Review@frederick.edu. Decision notification by mid-April.
- Potential Tuscarora Review board members must enroll in the spring EN222-Creative Writing Workshop.
